COMMISSIONER CHAIR DOBER PRESIDING:

1. AGENDA

On a motion by Commissioners Berezniak and Blais, the agenda was adopted as is.

2. FIRST CLASS RESTAURANT LIQUOR LICENSE APPLICATION (2011-2012)

Blue Cat Café and Wine Bar, One Lawson Lane

On a motion by Commissioners Berezniak and Blais, this item was open for discussion. Ozzy Giral, co-owner, had no valid explanation as to why he failed to fill out his paperwork in a timely manner. He had been informed numerous times by the Clerk/Treasurer's Office since December 2010 just like all of the other establishments who had complied. He did take an enforcement seminar training on April 20th with DLC; on April 27th after his wife, Mariasha Giral, called the State to see where their license was, it was only then that the Clerk/Treasurer's Office received contact via voicemail. Lori left a voicemail that same day after attending the Local Control Sub-committee meeting scheduled, outlining what needed to be done. On April 28th, Ozzy came into fill out the license renewal forms and make outstanding gross receipt tax payments for a total of 10 months. He was told that most likely he would be without a license since his current one would expire on April 30th and the next Local Control Sub-committee Meeting was scheduled for May 4th. He contacted both Chair Dober and the Mayor's Office which resulted in this Special Meeting being called. He apologized and vowed never to be late again regarding this process. Commissioner Berezniak, seconded by Commissioner Blais, made a motion to approve the 2011-2012 First Class Liquor License Application for Blue Cat Café and Wine Bar with the following conditions: updated gross receipt taxes, Fire Marshal approval and clean background checks. Passed 3-0.

3. OUTSIDE CONSUMPTION PERMIT APPLICATION (2011-2012):

Blue Cat Café and Wine Bar, One Lawson Lane

On a motion by Commissioners Berezniak and Blais, the 2011-2012 Outside Consumption Permit Application was approved with the same conditions as with the liquor license application. Passed 3-0.

4. ADJOURNMENT

On a motion by Commissioners Berezniak and Blais, the Local Control Sub-committee voted unanimously adjourned at 5:20 p.m.
